In situ installation, Burden shed. The URBAN ART BIENNALE 2026 will open in early May at the World Heritage Site Völklinger Hütte. Initial installation work is already underway, as more works than ever before are being created in situ specifically for their location within the Völklinger Hütte. Graffiti pioneer Boris Tellegen, known by his artist name DELTA for his three-dimensional-looking letters, is transforming his sense of spatiality into a gigantic two-tone wooden sculpture.
